

THE MEADOWS ASSISTED LIVING AT FRASIER

Come home to Frasier

At The Meadows Assisted Living at Frasier, we've put a lot of careful thought into our assisted living and memory support community – partnering with premier architectural firms to create a life-affirming atmosphere that's intimate and inviting for everyone who makes this their home. We consulted with experts in the field of memory-related illnesses to ensure that the unique needs of residents with challenges like Alzheimer's and dementia are addressed in every aspect of the environment and care you'll experience here.

You'll notice the difference the minute you enter our community, where you'll find:

- Private apartment suites that are stylish – with access to courtyards and gardens that bring the beauty of the outdoors in.
- Shared spaces that are graceful and welcoming, ensuring safety while honoring freedom and independence.
- Person-directed care that's focused on holistic wellness and founded on the philosophy that all people, regardless of age or ability, have ongoing opportunities for growth and happiness.
- Life-enriching social, recreational and therapeutic activities provided by a caring and compassionate staff

With 19 apartments for people needing assistance with activities of daily living and 19 for those living with dementia and needing memory support, you're sure to find the right assisted living accommodations here at Frasier.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Who is eligible for assisted living and memory support?

Anyone 65 or older who has physical or memory challenges and may need safety oversight or assistance with activities like bathing, dressing, grooming or medications that do not require 24-hour nursing care.

Is The Meadows Assisted Living at Frasier licensed?

Yes, we are licensed by the state of Colorado and by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF).

Does Frasier accept insurance?

Yes. Many long-term care policies provide coverage for licensed assisted living and memory support. However, The Meadows Assisted Living at Frasier is not certified for Medicaid.

What is your staffing profile?

Staff is scheduled 24-hours a day, seven days a week.

What if an assisted living or memory support resident needs more care?

If your physical or memory loss challenges increase to the point where more constant care is required, The Summit Care Center offers around-the-clock skilled nursing and rehabilitation services. The care center is Medicare and Medicaid certified.

What if an assisted living or memory support resident needs therapy?

Physical, speech and occupational therapists are available and therapies may be covered by Medicare.

Does Frasier offer a wellness program?

Yes, our residents enjoy a complete Wellness Center with special equipment for weight and flexibility conditioning. We also offer classes in Yoga, Tai Chi, Pilates, balance and tummy-toning. Not to mention a heated resistance pool for aquatic classes and relaxation; a complete holistic healing program that includes massage therapy, reflexology, acupuncture, Feldenkrais, and Watsu; and spa services such as facials and foot massages.

Are respite care and hospice care available?

We partner with several local hospice care providers. The hospice provider you choose will provide information about qualifying for their services. Respite stay is available in The Summit Care Center depending on room availability.

Who operates Frasier continuing care retirement community?

Frasier is a not-for-profit organization that was founded in 1960 and affiliated with the Rocky Mountain United Methodist Conference. The Board of Trustees includes respected members of the local business, medical, and religious communities.
