

Frasier COVID-19 Dashboard

as of 11/19/21

| Location                     | Positive -in Isolation | Exposed -in Quarantine | Recovered -Cumulative* |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| The Peaks                    | 0                                  | 0                                  | 15                                 |
| The Prairies                 | 0                                  | 0                                  | 8                                  |
| The Meadows Assisted Living  | 0                                  | 0                                  | 3                                  |
| The Meadows Memory Support   | 0                                  | 0                                  | 1                                  |
| The Summit Care Center       | 0                                  | 0                                  | 0                                  |
| IL Staff                     | 0                                  | 0                                  | 21                                 |
| The Meadows AL/MS Staff      | 0                                  | 0                                  | 16                                 |
| The Summit Care Center Staff | 1                                  | 0                                  | 33                                 |

**The data in the "Recovered Cumulative" column is cumulative since early March 2020 and includes those who were presumed positive prior to the availability of widespread testing.*